 Comment

50X1-HUM

a. The above report [redacted] indicates that new Soviet combat units were transferred from the Soviet Union to the Balkans in the summer of 1949.

50X1-HUM

50X1-HUM

b. According to the above report, the trains which passed through ZALONY between 18 July and 15 August 1949 carried - approximately - the following troops and materiel from the Soviet Union to Hungary:

Troops on 200 railroad cars
 190 tanks and self-propelled guns
 10 antiaircraft guns
 6 searchlights
 12 radio trucks
 40 motor vehicles and prime movers
 Bridge-building equipment on 40 railroad cars.

These shipments may indicate that either one Soviet armored division [redacted] or large GR units were shifted from the Soviet Union to Hungary between mid-July and mid-August 1949. The shipments may, however, also indicate that only reinforcements arrived for Soviet units already stationed in Hungary.

50X1-HUM

c. The reported receiving stations (see "going in the general direction of") are, with the exception of BEOLNOK, located in the Hungarian-Yugoslav border area (MOMCS, BACA and VINGED).

[redacted] it is considered 50X1-HUM possible that the railroad stations mentioned may have been the receiving points for the observed shipments of troops and materiel. These stations are located in a border area which offers an advantageous jump-off position for any military action possibly planned, by the Soviets against Yugoslavia.
